CALL FOR PROPOSALS:

The Policy Studies Organization (PSO) invites you to submit a proposal for the upcoming conference. The Middle East Dialogue is for policy makers, scholars, business and social leaders, to discuss current issues. Its purpose is to promote multidisciplinary conversation about topics that include, but are not limited to:

- Education Initiatives
- Social, Political, Economic Reforms
- Interfaith Dialogue
- Peace Initiatives

- Israel-Palestine Conflict
- Nuclear Proliferation
- Women's Rights
- Terrorism
- Geopolitics

- Entrepreneurship
- Environmental Challenges
- Addressing the Biden Administration

The conference embraces a spectrum of political and religious persuasions to discuss issues in a spirit of tolerance and free discourse.

To Submit: Send a 1-2 page abstract to PSO Executive Director, Daniel Gutierrez at dgutierrezs@ipsonet.org or call +1 202-795-9165.

Proposals should be a summary of your intended talk that gives the reader a concise idea of your presentation. The early deadline for submissions will be March 15, 2024. Submissions received by this date will be given priority. Proposals may be in the form of individual presentations, panels, roundtables, or workshops. Other suggestions of format and topics are welcome.
