The Policy Studies Organization and the English Department at the American Public University System present this virtual conference focused on the voices that have traditionally been marginalized. The purpose of this conference is to bring a wide variety of people, issues, and ways of knowing to light in the context of multidisciplinary discussion.

Topics include, but are not limited to, the social construction of identity (gender, class, ethnicity, race, etc.), misperceptions and judgments, intersectionality, and theories and/or experiences related to equality, diversity, and inclusion.

Ideas for all themes and topics will be most welcome. Participation formats are open and can include demonstrations, exhibitions, panel or roundtable discussions, personal speeches, games, spoken word poetry, art virtual tours, drum circles, or any presentation experience that reflects unique communication in the shadows of marginalization.

TO SUBMIT A PROPOSAL:

Please email a written proposal (1-2 pages) or a topic you would like to discuss to the PSO Executive Director Daniel Gutierrez at dgutierrez@ipsonet.org.

The deadline for submissions is July 1st, 2024. Proposals will be peer-reviewed.
